

Trees:

Woodlands that are mapped as Primary or Secondary Environmental Corridors or Isolated Natural Resource Areas are protected by the Environmental Corridor Overlay zoning which limits disturbance within such areas. The Shoreland Protection Ordinance (SPO) regulates tree removal based upon location within Environmental Corridors and Isolated Natural Resource areas and in near shore areas. The SPO also protects certain trees that qualify as “Priority Trees” located within 300’ of the shore.

Priority Tree User Guide

Saving Trees During Construction