School Threat Kettle Moraine High School

On Wednesday, September 11th, 2024, the Waukesha County Sheriff's Office School Resource Officer at Kettle Moraine High School was advised of a student that made a possible threat towards another student at the school. A thorough investigation of the incident is being completed. The student and his family are cooperating with the investigation.

We understand the concerns and seriousness of these incidents, but there was information being shared on social media that our investigation does not support. During the investigation numerous witnesses were interviewed. No information has been obtained to indicate that were any anti-Semitic comments or anyone was "poked" with scissors. Also the investigation has not shown that any weapons were implied or gestures made. If you have any information regarding this incident please contact the Waukesha County Sheriff's Office at (262) 446-5090.

This incident remains under investigation by the Waukesha County Sheriff's Office. There will be an increased patrol presence in the area of the school.
